

We are looking for an

Academic Staff Member (100%) Post-Doc

for the field of social and health sciences at the Institute for Sport and Sport Science (professorship of Prof. Dr. Alexander Woll). The position can commence at the earliest opportunity and is fixed-term for three years (with the option of renewal for three further years) in the paygrade E 13/14 TV-L or A13 on limited appointment.

Job description

- contributing to publications, projects, research proposals, assisting in the supervision of doctoral candidates at the professorship of Prof. Dr. Woll
- possibility to specialise in a selected research area in the field of social and health sciences of sports
- teaching duties (4 hours per semester) and knowledge management

Personal qualifications

As successful applicant you have

- a higher than average university degree in sport science or a related empirically-oriented field (e.g., psychology, health science, empirical educational sciences),
- a higher than average doctoral degree,
- experiences with national as well as international publications,
- knowledge of and experiences with the management of research projects,
- very good skills of research methods and statistics,
- very good skills in spoken and written English.

It is desirable that you have university work experiences or at another research-related institution and are interested in further academic qualifications.

We offer an interesting, versatile setting in a dynamic team as well as the opportunity for further academic qualification.

For the staffing in A13 it is necessary that the Civil Service Law provisions are fulfilled. The KIT values work equality of women and men. We would therefore especially appreciate applications of women. Handicapped applicants will be given preference when accordingly qualified.

Please send your application by 15 September 2017 to the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, Institute for Sport and Sport Science, Prof. Dr. Alexander Woll, 76128 Karlsruhe, Germany. We kindly ask you to send your digital application to the secretary of Prof. Dr. Woll, Ms. Baudach (email: peggy.baudach@kit.edu).

Further information on the position may be obtained from Prof. Dr. Alexander Woll (phone: +49-721-608-41661).